

Shares inc.

YOUR MISSION

Shares, Inc. provides service and support for people with disabilities to enhance their successful inclusion in the community.

YOUR LIVING SKILLS DAY PROGRAM

PHILOSOPHY

All persons are entitled to opportunities to continue their growth and maximize their individual potential. By providing systematic training and exposure to life experiences of all types, adults with disabilities can become less dependent on other people and become valued and active members of the community.

GOALS

To provide a meaningful variety of experiences and training opportunities to maximize a person's independence in areas of community, home/life, recreation, pre-vocational training, functional academics, and self-management.

SERVICE APPROACH AND SETTINGS

Primary programming is offered on a full-time or part-time basis to develop, maintain, and utilize a wide variety of functional skills. The training is provided in a small group format or on an individual basis. Settings for the program include classroom, simulated apartment, Industry area, and a variety of community locations.

ELIGIBILITY

In order to enroll in Shares, Inc. Community Integration Services, individuals must be eligible for or involved in one of the following programs:
